MCINTYRE FAMILY FEATURE

Golden Jubilee and Family Reunion

July 4th saw a real "gathering of the clan" when the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McIntyre of 435 - 46th avenue, S. W., Calgary, held a family reunion in the city. On January 27, 1964, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre celebrated their Golden Wedding, and the family reunion was actually to celebrate that occasion.

The various members of the family travelled from all directions until by Friday evening every one was in Calgary, from the oldest to the youngest — Joe, his wife and son from Edmonton; Jerry, his wife, daughter and son from Nanaimo; Mary, her husband and daughter from Pincher Creek; Winifred, her husband, son and two daughters from Camrose; Blanche, her husband, six sons and two daughters from Trail, B. C.; Charlie, his wife and two sons from Santa Clara, Calif., U.S.A.; Jack, his wife, daughter and three sons from Vancouver, B. C.; M. Mary John (daughter Patricia) of the F. C. J. religious order from Combermere, Ont., and S. Mary Joanna (daughter Clotilda) of the order of St. Martha, from Antigonish, N. S., making nine sons and daughters, seven in-laws and 21 grandchildren.

Also in attendance was Mrs. Sarah Sutherland and Miss Madeline Gillis, sister and niece of Mr. McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. J. Hillary (Mrs. McIntyre's sister) of Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis (nee Betty Hillary) of Pasco, Wash., U.S.A.

The reunion events started by the entire family attending Mass at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 4th, at which Bishop Wilhelm officiated, assisted by the choir.

A family dinner, in the Colonel's Room of the Stampeder Hotel, was thoroughly enjoyed. During the afternoon a reception was held in St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church hall, where many friends old and new — called to offer their congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre and to visit with the family. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. D. Fleming, Mrs. N. Abousayyeh of Coleman, Mrs. L. L. Morris.

Couple Mark 26th. Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry France of Coleman marked the occasion of their 26th wedding anniversary at a family get together held at their home last week.

A family supper was held after which the couple were presented with a gift by Mrs. France's sister Mrs. Anne William Cousins of Blairmore. Attending the affair were Mrs. France's sisters, Peggy Mrs. A. Vejprava and Mrs. Cousins of Blairmore, Mrs. G. Kidd of Vancouver and their mother Mrs. A. Penman of Vancouver. After visiting with her daughters in the Pass, Mrs. Penman and daughter Grace proceeded to Calgary to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vejprava and family. The couple will then proceed home to Vancouver via the Roger's Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. France were married in Pincher Creek in 1938 and have lived in Coleman since. The couple have one son, Robert.

Any fool can criticize, condemn and complain . . . and most fools do.

Mrs. Ferucio DeCecco Passed Away Suddenly

Requiem High Mass was celebrated in the Holy Ghost Catholic Church at 10 a.m. on Monday, July 13 for the late Mrs. Anne, Mary DeCecco, who passed away in the Crowsnest Pass Municipal Hospital unexpectedly on July 8. Interment was made in the family plot in the Coleman Catholic Cemetery and Reverend Denis Fleming officiated. Prayers were said in the Chapel of Fantin's Hillside Chapel at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday evening.

Mrs. DeCecco, 45 was born in Yablonky, Czechoslovakia on April 15, 1919. She came to Canada with her mother, a sister and a brother in 1937 and the family settled in Coleman. She married her husband Ferucio in the Coleman Holy Ghost Catholic Church, November 18, 1939. She was pre-deceased by her mother in Coleman in 1937.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son Donald, and a daughter Linda, both in Calgary, her father Louis Liposnik in Vancouver, one brother Anton Liposnik in Los Angeles, California and a sister Mrs. D. (Greta) Butala of Calgary.

Farewell Party Held

A surprise farewell party was held at the home of Denise Aiello in honor of Christyann Dunford. The evening was spent in games and singing after which barbecued hot dogs were enjoyed by all. Christyann was presented with a sewing kit on behalf of the girls present and many good wishes were expressed for her happiness at her future home in Calgary.

Former Coleman Student Wins Scholarship

Peter Miesak, a former Coleman student who has completed his grade XII at Athabasca High School in Calgary won a $1,000 scholarship at McGill University. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miesak. Mrs. Miesak has been working as a certified nursing aide at the Calgary General Hospital.

The four sisters and Mr. Hougen left for Vancouver, B.C., where they visited their brothers Murdoch and Kenneth MacLean. On their return they travelled from Vancouver to Calgary via way of the Roger's Pass, and enjoyed the opening day of the "Calgary Stampede."

Family Reunion Held

The home of Mrs. Mary MacQuarrie was the scene of a happy family reunion recently, when two sisters from Inverness, Nova Scotia, Mrs. Katie MacKay and Mrs. Albie MacMillan, also another sister, Mrs. Isabelle Hougen and her husband Ingwald from Rosetown, Sask., arrived to spend a few days with Mrs. MacQuarrie.

Also present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Jenkins of Cranbrook, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Ted Malone of Natal, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dunford of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. A. MacQuarrie of Coleman and her twelve grandchildren. All sat down to a turkey supper.

tv TALK

VIEWING HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

A memorial diary of Robert Harris, the Canadian artist who painted The Fathers of Confederation at the Quebec Conference of 1864 will be presented on the CBC-TV documentary series "20/20" Saturday, July 18th at 5:00 p.m.

Viewers will see many of Harris' unpublished paintings, drawings and sketches and will hear reminiscences of the man and his work recalled by his nieces and nephew. Also recorded in the film is an interview with famous artist A. Y. Jackson, who as an art student in Montreal knew Robert Harris during the last years of his eventful life.

The World of Sport series Sunday, July 19th goes to Great Britain for features on golf and auto racing.

At 2:00 p.m. commentators Henry Longhurst, Bill Cox and Cliff Michelmore will relate the highlights of the 1964 British Open, contested over the historic Old St. Andrews course in Scotland. Among the world's top golfers competing for top prize money will be Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Tony Lema, and defending champion Bob Charles.

Then at 3:00 p.m. there'll be film of the British Grand Prix held at Brands Hatch, Kent, England. 135,000 spectators are expected to view the race over the 2.65 mile course. Four former world champions are in the large field of competitors. They're Jim Clark, Phil Hill, Jack Brabham, and Graham Hill. Raymond Baxter provides color commentary while Jim Bolster reports from the pit area.

"How far has gambling infiltrated our society and what are its consequences?" — that's the subject matter for Horizon's Sunday, July 19th show entitled "The Many Faces of Gambling". This expose of gambling in North America has been filmed in New York, Toronto and Las Vegas. Among those taking part are: Ed Beid, author of the current best-seller, "The Green Felt Jungle"; Mel Exner, part owner of a Las Vegas Club; U.S. Attorney General, Robert Kennedy; Mike Magee, horse race handicapper; Dr. Harry Perlitz, a Brooklyn psychiatrist; Rev. Ernest M. Howse of the Bloor St. United Church in Toronto and Detective Sergeant John Wilson of the Metropolitan Toronto morality squad. Horizon will be seen Sunday at 10:00 p.m.

A special one-hour television presentation of the Centennial Pageant from Charlottetown's Confederation Theatre will replace Dr. Finlay's Casebook, Monday, July 20th at 7:30 p.m. The pageant chronicles the history of Prince Edward Island from the time of its discovery by Jacques Cartier in 1834 until the first meeting of the Fathers of Confederation in 1864.

Stephen McNally, Peter Brown, and Ulla Jacobson star in Suspense Theatre, Wednesday, July

22nd at 9:30 p.m. In "The Action of the Tiger", a U.S. airman escapes from a Nazi prison-of-war camp and impersonating a French worker he begins a perilous train journey across Germany.
